Name: _____ Date: _____

Concentrations: _____ Adviser: _____

Current academic status: (circle one) Sophomore          Junior

Due Date: April 15, 2019

Faculty Select Scholarships will be awarded to juniors and seniors who, in the evaluation of the faculty, embody and exemplify the mission of Providence as a Reformed liberal arts college. The award is based upon academic performance at Providence, including academic improvement and intellectual growth while at Providence, as well as leadership and service on campus and in the community.

To be eligible, students must have attained sophomore or junior status and have completed one full semester at Providence. To apply, students should submit a thoughtful, reflective essay of 1-2 pages (single-spaced, 1000 words maximum) addressing the following questions:

1. What academic achievements/goals have you reached that demonstrate the cultivation of your intellectual life? What improvements have you made? What is your attitude toward your academic life?
2. What work, services, activities, etc. do you participate in on campus, in your church, and in this community? How much of your week is involved in these other activities, and how do you balance these activities with your academic responsibilities?
3. What about Providence's mission and identity resonates most with your life goals?
